

Get ready for the Not Another Masterclass (Series)

In the coming weeks, I'll be teaching my heart out over four live broadcasts. With more than 90 minutes of content planned for each broadcast, and each lesson building on the previous...

We're looking at 6+ hours of FREE training to help you get your head on straight and lead on your terms.

Here's your chance to show up, connect, engage, ask questions and do the work to make a (much) bigger impact.

I know it's possible because I get emails and messages from people all the time who tell me how they've used just my free training to build their own online empires.

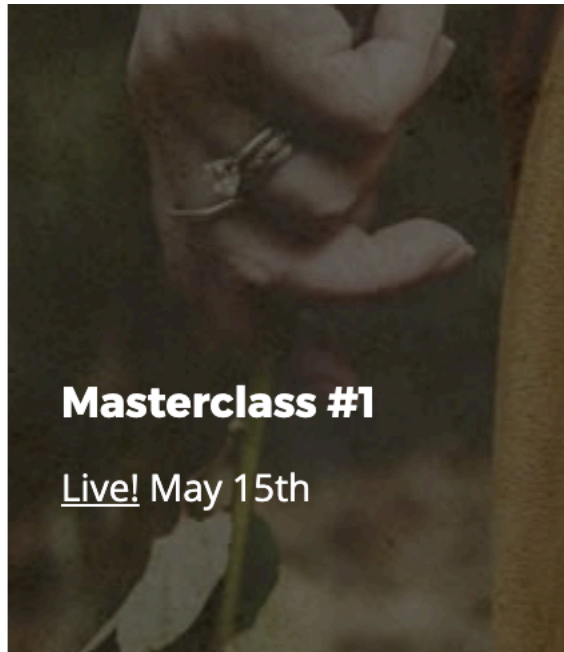

So I encourage you to show up and play a big game. And have some fun too.

See you soon!

Here's the breakdown of what to expect — and when...

Masterclass #1

Live! May 15th

Lesson 1 - May 15. at 2 pm ET

Leadership YOUR way (You're NOT who you think you are)

We dive into what it looks like to lead on your terms, without frazzle, burnout or going broke.

I learned a long time ago that success came from a combination of mindset and strategy – my own strategy that came from my own mindset.

It's an enigma in a paradox and I'm going to untangle it for you now.

Masterclass #2

Live! May 22nd

Lesson 2 - May 22 at 2 pm ET

Business on YOUR terms

Expanding your capacity to receive, but also to give. It's NOT all on you. But as long as you think it is, you contract.

(Are you available for what is trying to help you?)

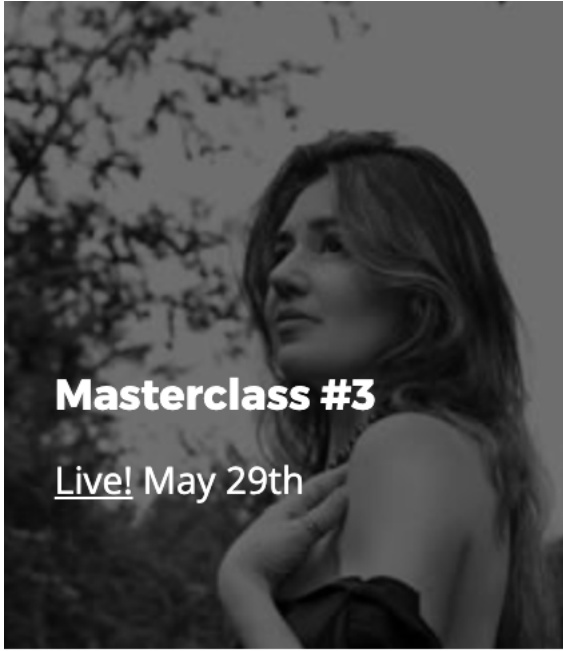

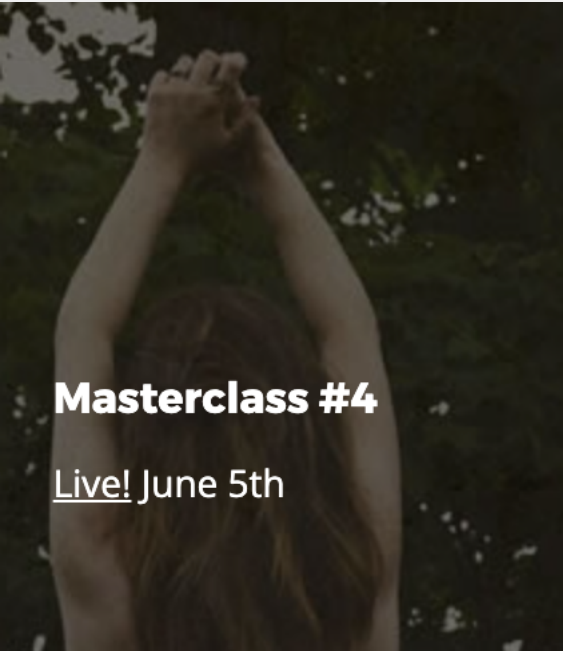

We'll also talk about upleveling who you think you are.
